BUYER COMPENSATION

WAYS REALTORS GET BUYER COMPENSATION

1. SELLER OFFERS FULL COMPENSATION

The seller agrees to pay the buyer's agent a commission, typically a percentage of the home's sale price. This is a common practice and often outlined in the listing agreement. The buyer's agent is compensated directly from the proceeds of the sale, costing the buyer nothing extra.

Example: Seller offers a 3% commission to the buyer's agent. If the home sells for $300,000, the buyer's agent receives $9,000 from the seller.

2. SELLER OFFERS PARTIAL COMPENSATION

The seller offers to pay a portion of the buyer's agent's commission, but not the full standard rate. The buyer may need to cover the remaining amount to ensure their agent is fully compensated.

Example: The seller offers a 2% commission to the buyer's agent, while the market standard is 3%. If the home sells for $300,000, the buyer's agent receives $6,000 from the seller, and the buyer agrees to pay the remaining $3,000 to meet the agent's standard commission.

3. SELLER DOES NOT OFFER COMMISSION

The seller does not provide any commission for the buyer's agent. In this case, the buyer is responsible for compensating their agent, typically through an agreement made prior to the home search.

Example: The seller offers no commission to the buyer's agent. If the standard commission is 3%, and the home sells for $300,000, the buyer directly pays their agent $9,000.

IT'S IMPORTANT TO DISCUSS POTENTIAL COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS WITH YOUR AGENT UPFRONT TO UNDERSTAND HOW THEY'LL BE PAID IN SUCH SITUATIONS

WHY OFFER A BUYER COMMISSION

HERE'S WHY IT'S A SMART MOVE

When you decide to sell your home, maximizing its exposure and appeal is crucial. Offering a commission to buyer agents can significantly enhance your chances of a successful and profitable sale. Here's why:

○ Attract More Buyers

Buyer agents play a pivotal role in guiding potential buyers. By offering a commission, you incentivize these agents to show your home to their clients, increasing your pool of prospective buyers.

○ Competitive Edge

In a competitive real estate market, offering a buyer agent commission sets your home apart. It signals to agents that you are a serious seller, making your property more appealing compared to those without.

○ Higher Sale Price

Studies show that homes offering a buyer agent commission often sell for more. The increased buyer interest and competitive nature fostered by commissions can drive up the final sale price of your home.

○ Faster Sales Process

Homes with buyer agent commissions often sell faster. Agents are more likely to prioritize showing these properties, leading to quicker offers and reducing the time your home spends on the market.

○ Professional Negotiation

Buyer agents are skilled negotiators. By engaging them through a commission, you ensure that negotiations are handled professionally, leading to better terms and a smoother closing process.

○ Smooth Transactions

Buyer agents help manage the paperwork, coordinate inspections, and handle other details, ensuring a seamless transaction. Their expertise reduces the likelihood of delays and complications.

PRICING STRATEGY

PRICING YOUR HOME TO SELL

PRICING YOUR HOME COMPETITIVELY

The listing price is one of the most important factors in a successful home sale. Many people tend to list too high and they either have to move greatly on the price or it takes much longer to get any offer.

You can lean on me to help guide you through setting the perfect starting price. Homes that are competitively priced have a much greater chance of selling in a timely manner.

PRICING

PRICING FACTORS TO CONSIDER

Your local area's current housing market conditions will play a large factor in helping to determine the best listing price for your home.

○ 02. The Competition

We will look to see what other homes are on the market to determine how your listing will compare to other listings in your area.

○ 03. Your Timeline

We will establish your urgency and flexibility for selling to set the best listing price for your home to meet your goals.

A CHECKLIST TO PREPARE FOR PHOTOS

- Ensure windows are spotless for clear views and maximum light.

- Clean and organize the kitchen: clear countertops, and clean appliances.
- Touch Up Paint Where Needed: on both interior and exterior walls.
- Arrange furniture for open space: Create a welcoming and spacious layout.
- Mow the lawn and trim hedges: ensure the front and back yards are neat and tidy.
- Store trash bins out of sight: ensure they are not visible from the street or in photos.
- Remove all furry friends from the areas being photographed.
- Create a list of all the areas you want the photographer to capture.

STEP SIX

LISTING YOUR HOME

○ Step One

As your agent, we will start marketing your home to potential buyers as soon as your listing is on the market. Harnessing the power of social media to share a short preview of your new listing and drive traffic through digital tools.

○ Step Two

When competition is fierce, can you really afford to not stage your home? Staging your home brings multiple benefits such as; creating a great first impression, highlighting the best features, and selling your home faster!

○ Step Three

We will publish your listing on the MLS, with major online real estate platforms and employ any number of other tactics, such as:

- Change the featured photo regularly
- Host open houses
- Use email lists
- Utilize The massive resources of REMAX

“Congratulations your home is officially on the market”

STEP SEVEN

OPEN HOUSE

HOSTING OPEN HOUSE EVENTS

Hosting an open house is a brilliant way to create a buzz about your home.

HOW WE PREPARE FOR YOUR OPEN HOUSE EVENTS!

- ✓ Online Marketing
Post on popular real estate websites, such as Zillow and our local MLS
- ✓ Yard Signs
Put up multiple "Open House" signs in the neighborhood on key corners
- ✓ Social Media
Highlight your open house event on our social media platforms, such as Facebook & Instagram
- ✓ Marketing
Print out postcards and flyers to hand out to potential buyers driving them to your open house

Captivating Staging!

Staging is what creates a "wow factor" when buyers first walk through the doors of your home. On the morning of your open house make sure you tidy and give a final clean. Also, have your property details on hand as potential buyers walk around!

HOME SHOWINGS

THINGS TO CONSIDER

✓ Be Flexible

Be as flexible and accommodating to the buyer's schedule as possible. We want to avoid having missed opportunities if at all possible.

✓ Natural Light

Open blinds and curtains and let in as much natural light as possible. Leave lights on before you leave for a showing.

✓ Odors

Avoid strong-smelling foods; keep your meal prep as neutral and simple as possible.

✓ Furry Friends

Keep pet areas clean. Clean up after your pets immediately and wash their bedding regularly. Not everyone is a pet person and it may hinder potential buyers' ability to picture themselves living in your home.

✓ Empty Trash

Empty trash cans to avoid any odors. Try to empty trash cans nightly so that the home is fresh when you leave for the day.

✓ Keep Informed

Make sure everyone in the home is informed when showings are to happen so they can keep their spaces clean.

STEP EIGHT

OFFERS AND NEGOTIATIONS

Once you receive an offer there are several items that have to be handled. Making sure you properly disclose and obey all the terms of the contract are just a few important items. When we have an accepted contract, the escrow process begins. We help you every step of the way.

Disclosures

The law requires the seller to disclose certain information to prospective buyers. The disclosures are designed to help buyers make informed decisions about purchasing a property. If a seller fails to disclose the appropriate information, the penalties can be severe.

Inspections

It is important to understand the contingencies in the offers that are received. The default inspection contingency gives the buyer a little more than two weeks (17 days) to complete all inspections. It is important that you understand what your obligations and options are during this period and that your agent stays on top of the deadlines in the contract.

Financing / Appraisals

It is important that your agent is skilled in helping you review offers and to make sure the buyers that have offered have been fully underwritten and are fully approved to avoid potential issues during this process.

Closing

Our goal is to help and coach you through the entire transaction. We understand that this is a process you only do a few times in your life, so we want to earn the role as your real estate professional for LIFE... not just a single transaction.

THE OFFER PROCESS

AFTER AN OFFER IS SUBMITTED

Our top tip!

Being flexible will help the offer and negotiation process go smoother, moving one step closer to finalizing the sale of your home!

WE CAN

THE BUYER
CAN

OFFER
ACCEPTED

- Accept the offer
- Decline the offer

If the offer isn't close enough to your expectations and we need to further negotiate

- Counter the offer

- Rescind the offer (before acceptance)
- Decline the counter
- Counter the counter

You can negotiate back and forth as many times as needed until you can reach an agreement or until someone walks away.

You will then sign the purchase agreement and you are now officially under contract! This period of time is called the contingency period.

STEP EIGHT

INSPECTIONS & APPRAISALS

Property inspections are done to make a determination as to the home's actual condition beyond visual appearances. If the property inspector finds any issues, the buyer can decide if they want to back out of the contract or negotiate the terms for the sale.

HOME APPRAISAL

If the buyer is applying for a loan to purchase the home they will need to have an appraisal performed by the bank to verify the home is worth the loan amount. As a seller we want the property to appraise for at least the sale amount or more. It is very difficult to successfully contest your appraisal. An experienced agent utilizes certain strategies to reveal the value of the home prior to the appraisal.

STEP NINE

CLOSING DAY!

WHAT TO EXPECT ON THE DAY

Closing is when funds and documents are transferred in order to transfer ownership of the property to the buyer. The escrow officer will look over the contract and find out what payments are owed by whom, prepare documents for closing, perform the closing, make sure all payoffs are completed, the buyer's title is recorded, and that you receive payoffs that are due to you.

Your Costs

- The real estate agents' fee
- Title insurance policy
- Home warranty
- Mortgage balance and prepayment penalties

What to Bring

- All house keys
- Any garage openers
- Mailbox keys
- A valid government-issued photo ID

“Congratulations your home has sold!”

STEP TEN

FINAL STEPS FOR SELLERS

Check for Forgotten Items

Do one more check throughout the home to make sure you're not leaving anything behind. One exception: You may want to leave unused or leftover paint cans in the colors currently used in the home

Change Address

Let everyone know your new address. Submit a change of address to the post office.

Documents

Secure all closing documents as well as the contract and closing documents. Keep them in a safe place. Put together a packet of manuals, receipts, and any warranties as well.

Turn Off Water Valves

The last thing you want before closing is a flood. With the buyer's permission, turn off your house's main shutoff valve before closing.

Close Accounts

Cancel utilities and close the accounts. Keep a list of phone numbers for each of your utilities.

Lock Up

Day before the settlement, make sure to close window coverings and lock the entry doors
